OUR BRANDS OF FLOUR
—ARE—NONE SUCH.

DAILY BREAD,
SATISFACTION,
BOYD'S ENTIRE.

NONE SUCH is made by taking from each bushel of wheat only about 6 lbs of the very finest flour it contains. This is accomplished by the latest improved process known to the milling world to-day, and when it reaches the barrel or bag it is as pure, rich and white as it is possible to make flour. If you want the finest Patent flour the market affords buy NONE SUCH. If your grocer does not keep it send us a Terms cash or good references.

BY AN OLD-TIMER.

NO. 18.

It is an easy transition from subjects not pleasant to contemplate, but which the writer could not ignore and yet be a faithful chronicler of events, to those more congenial to his feelings, reference is next had to the county's representation in the General Assemblies of Kentucky since the year 1860. The names enrolled will serve to remind some, and inform others, of those who have been instructed to make laws for the government of the people. These names are recorded at Frankfort, and they may yet be upon the pages of unwritten history. They are as follows:

Charles Folk, 1860-7; William Hardin, 1860-13; John Serrett, 1811-24-25; Joseph Hinton, 1815, died in office and vacancy filled by Wm. Hardin; James Moorman, 1814-15-16; Edward Chev, 1817-18; Robert Stephens, 1819; David R. Murray, 1820-21; David Stephens, 1820; Amos Watkins, 1827-8; John Callahan, 1829-30-40; Jefferson Jennings, 1832; Henry Washington, 1837; Alfred Allen, 1838; Ben Sullivan, 1841-42; Charles Hamilton, 1843-44; Joseph T. Smith, 1845-46; Nathaniel R. Lightfoot, 1847; Joseph A. McClary, 1848; John B. Bruner, 1849-50; Joshua H. Thomas, 1851-2; Thomas Alexander, 1853-5; Gideon P. Jolly, 1857-7; William A. Barton, 1857-9; David C. Gannaway, 1859-61; Alfred Allen, 1861-67, but elected State Treasurer in 1866, and succeeded in the Legislature by Charles Alexander, 1868-67; John Allen Murray, 1867-9; Dudley Hamilton, 1869-71; James D. Wilson, 1871-3; Thomas M. Miller, 1873-5; J. W. Drury, 1875-6; Thomas J. Lewis, 1877-8; R. R. Pierce, 1878-80; Green W. Beard, 1881-2; E. R. Pennington, 1883-4; James Hamilton, 1885-8; Tice Jolly, 1889-90.

David R. Murray was elected State Senator while a resident of Haverhill, subsequently removed temporarily to Columbus during the excitement regarding the rich mines discovered there, but did not resign his position as Senator, and was recognized at Frankfort during the session as the "Senator from Colorado."

Hon. Late Green, of Falls of Rough, was subsequently State Senator one term, succeeded by Dr. Byers, of Grayson county, and the position is now being ably filled by James K. Wortham, of Letchfield.

The farm on Long Lick, the late residence of Thomas J. Lewis, deceased, was owned and occupied successively by Mr. Amos Watkins, Dr. J. H. Thomas, and John Lewis, and each one of these represented the county in the Legislature. It might be a good investment for some aspiring gentleman to buy that farm and thus place himself in the line of safe precedents for political preferment.

Of the Representatives named, fifteen were residents of Hardinburg, four of Cloverport, five from the Long Lick section, three from the Bewleyville section, two from Holt's Bottom, two from Quality Corner, two from the upper part of the county, two from the Union section, one from Clover Creek, and two from other sections. The average term of service is something over two years, although a number served longer, but it will be remembered that previous to the adoption of the present Constitution, sessions were held annually.

Previous to the election of Representatives in 1877, the "Grange" movement had taken shape—an organization somewhat similar to the present Farmers' Alliance. A long period of depression had existed and the farmers concluded to make some effort to better their condition—a proceeding of the greatest importance, and certainly demanded by every consideration. Accordingly steps were taken on this new line, radical measures were proposed and to a considerable extent carried into effect; middle men were to be knocked out, buying all to be done from first hands, "Grange Stores" were opened in towns and different neighborhoods in the country, on the co-operative plan, and the merchants were ignored, many, notwithstanding these same measures, lost their money with food and clothing on credit for years. These and many other matters introduced in the interest of reform, it was hoped, would soon bring about better times.

As a result of these things, a majority perhaps of Grangers were elected to the Legislature in 1877-78, and in 1879-80, and in 1881-82, and in 1883-84, and in 1885-86, and in 1887-88, and in 1889-90, and in 1891-92, and in 1893-94, and in 1895-96, and in 1897-98, and in 1899-00, and in 1901-02, and in 1903-04, and in 1905-06, and in 1907-08, and in 1909-10, and in 1911-12, and in 1913-14, and in 1915-16, and in 1917-18, and in 1919-20, and in 1921-22, and in 1923-24, and in 1925-26, and in 1927-28, and in 1929-30, and in 1931-32, and in 1933-34, and in 1935-36, and in 1937-38, and in 1939-40, and in 1941-42, and in 1943-44, and in 1945-46, and in 1947-48, and in 1949-50, and in 1951-52, and in 1953-54, and in 1955-56, and in 1957-58, and in 1959-60, and in 1961-62, and in 1963-64, and in G. A. Jackson, who left here three weeks ago to visit his father in law in the city, died there last Thursday. His remains were brought here Saturday and interred in the Oglesby graveyard the same evening. Mr. Jackson was in his 64th year, and leaves a wife and two small children.

The Allen hill road is now said to be in a worse condition than any other public road in the county. It is almost impassable. Every year this road gets in a fearful bad condition about the time of the spring rains, and this season it is said to be worse than common. The County Court should make an appropriation for this road.

R. L. Sulzer has begun remodeling the interior of his store rooms. The old fixtures will be replaced with the latest improved and most modern to be had in the county. Mr. Sulzer is determined not to be behind in the procession when it comes to store improvements. He said to his manager, Mr. Nolte, "I'll show and make it the most attractive place in Cloverport," and that's just what Mr. Nolte will do.

Robbers attempted to break into Sulzer's store Monday night, but were driven off by Eugene Cliff, who stands guard there at night. Eugene fired at them just as they were in the act of entering the door, which they had nearly succeeded in prying open. Eugene put on a bold front and stood his ground like a man, and the robbers left in double-quick time.

Mr. Eugene Vest, of Wm. Vest & Sons, left last Sunday for the East, where he has gone to lay in his spring purchases. The business of this firm is growing rapidly, and in order to meet the growing demands a trip East and buying direct from first hands make it necessary for Mr. Vest to visit the markets elsewhere. He will be here under going a thorough overhauling by the painters, paper-hangers and carpenters, and by the time their spring arrivals begin to come in it will look like a modern bazaar. Watch for their opening day.

A Word of Advice.

Seeing you are ever ready to give a helping hand to right and to set all things in proper shape, I will, with your permission, give a few words of advice where I think it is needed. I noticed in your column, under date of March 25, a letter signed by a Wheeler in answer to a letter written by Capt. Gross some time before in regard to a third party in our county. Now I do not wish to do Capt. Jack's fighting for him, but more than able to do that, but my object in this is to get my brother right, and not only him, but any others that may have strayed away from the path of duty. Now, my dear brother, you say you don't know what promises were made to the captain, when it was promised him it should not interfere with his party, but you know there was no such promise made to no one else that joins our ranks. Now, dear brother, before you had taken the obligation were you not informed that it should not interfere with your religion or politics? Now please turn to Digest page 43 section 58, and you will find that no one can be held ineligible to office on account of his religious or political opinion. Our relation to politics is very clearly explained in a letter to a member published in the Elizabethtown News from T. P. Gardner, president of the F. and L. Union, who says in the first place we are not a political party; we never can be unless we begin by changing our declaration of purposes and our constitution and by-laws. The very first principle provides that we shall labor in non-partisan spirit. Again, in the same letter, whenever a brother is introduced in a sub or county union while in session calling a convention or endorsing a candidate for office, or condemning a man who is a candidate for office, the presiding officer should at once rule it out of order. No one can be an F. and L. Union candidate for office, there is no law for it, and in direct violation of the spirit of our organization, and says examine closely the laws of our organization and you will see that the relation of our order to religion and politics are clearly related, and suppose a member should introduce a resolution to endorse a certain kind of religion, what would it be? It would be wrong and we are not working for any party in existence or to be. Now, my dear brother, would it not be wise for us at our next meeting of the union to adopt the resolution adopted by the Hardin County Union, which reads:

WHEREAS, Some of our members belonging to this union forgetting it they belong to a non-partisan union, forgetting they are referred to work in a non-partisan spirit,

WHEREAS, A member can not be a partisan and a non-partisan at the same time,

Resolved, That a partisan spirit is in direct conflict with our declaration of purposes and all erring brethren should be put on the right track that this source of discord should be removed.

Now, my dear brother, you introduce that resolution and I will second it and make a speech on it. One more error my brother has fallen into, and that is that the F. and L. Union was organized under the administration of If you will find yourself in regard to that you will find that it was organized July 29, 1879.

Hoping these few words of advice, given in the spirit they are given, will do my brother good and all others who are seeking to do good in our grand and glorious organization. Let us lay aside this political sin which doth so easily beset us and enter upon our work that awaits us and go to work. Already the harvest is ripe, the fields are awaiting those who will go and work today. My best wishes to all for success.

When You Buy a Suit Or Pair Pants

For yourself or boys you want to go to a place where you will get honest clothing at an honest price and where they do not throw in a "so-called" present, which has already been added on to the price of the suit. Such a place is our house. We manufacture our entire stock, and having no profits to pay wholesale dealers, we can afford to put a moderate price on our goods and make a moderate profit. We don't want the world, but we do want the good will and friendship of the people in it. Come to us for Spring Overcoats and Confirmation Suits. We are leaders in these articles. Can show you a handsome and larger variety at more moderate prices.

Is There no Way Out of the Mud?

We pity the farmer who has to struggle through these bottomless roads with a handful of tobacco which he is bound to get to market in order to lay in supplies necessary to enable him to pitch his hoe. It is a question whether or not he is entitled to any sympathy or not. If he has to take a tax for road purposes he will inevitably go against it. It is no more the duty of the towns to build the roads of the country. They think it is the duty of the towns to build all the roads and keep them up for their benefit. And just as long as this state of feeling exists we will never have a road system worth a cent. Good roads are every body's and the interests of both farmer, merchant and tradespeople are mutual. It is no more the duty of the towns to build the roads of the country than it is for the people living in the towns to go and work the farms without compensation. It is the duty of the towns to contribute their part of the expense in building good roads and they must generally do it when they are called upon. But they can't do it all, and it isn't fair and right that they should. Good roads, like everything else that is good in this world, come high, and it takes money to build them; and it's time our people, one and all, were getting their heads together to solve the problem. Good roads are the only salvation for this country. You may talk about the tariff, free silver and 2 per cent. money, but they amount to nothing without good roads. Let everybody wake up, farmers, merchants, lawyers, doctors and all, to the importance of a good road system and we'll get it. The farmers' organization over the country couldn't do a better work than inaugurate a movement for better roads.

ALEXANDER'S HOTEL,

Seventh and Market Streets,
Louisville, - - - Kentucky.

Having sold out our entire interest in the hotel on Jefferson street, we have removed to our old stand that we occupied for years so successfully at Seventh and Market streets, are now fitting it up in elegant shape—new throughout, and the outfit in every way will be elegant, including one of Hale's Safety Passenger and Baggage Elevators with all the late improvements.

We want all of our old friends to come and see us in our old home. We promise you that our Rooms, Table and Service shall be second to none in the land.

My wife, Mrs. J. B. Alexander, wants to be remembered to all her lady friends and she will be glad to see them and give them a hearty reception.

Robbers attempted to break into Suter's store Monday night, but were driven off by Eugene Stoff, who stands guard there at night. Eugene fired at them just as they were in the act of entering the door, which they had nearly succeeded in prizing open. Eugene put on a bold front and stood his ground like a man, and the robbers left in double quick time.

Mr. Eugene Vest, of Wm. Vest & Sons, left last Sunday for the East, where he has gone to lay in his spring purchases. The business of this firm is growing rapidly, and in order to meet the growing demands a trip East and buying direct from first hands made it necessary for Mr. Vest to visit the markets in person. Their store is now undergoing a thorough overhauling by the painters, paper-hangers and carpenters, and by the time their spring arrivals begin to come in it will look like a modern hazzar. Watch their opening day.

A Word of Advice

Enron BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

Seeing you are ever ready to give a helping hand to right and to set all things in proper shape, I will, with your permission, give a few words of advice where I think it is needed. I noticed in your columns, under date of March 25, a letter signed by a Wheeler in answer to a letter written by Capt. Gross some time before in regard to a third party in our county.

When You Buy a Suit Or Pair Pants

For yourself or boys you want to go to a place where you will get honest clothing at an honest price and where they do not throw in a "so-called" present, which has already been added on to the price of the suit. Such a place is our house. We manufacture our entire stock, and having no profits to pay wholesale dealers, we can afford to put a moderate price on our goods and make a moderate profit. We don't want the world, but we do want the good will and friendship of the people in it. Come to us for Spring Overcoats and Confirmation Suits. We are leaders in these articles. Can show you a handsomer and larger variety at more moderate prices.

ROCKVALE.

Mr. John Dean is in New York.

Rain! Rain! Will it never cease?

Mr. Fred Owen was in Louisville last week.

Mr. Beeler has returned from Baltimore.

Mr. Charlie Deane has returned from Louisville.

Mr. Jim Deane has returned from Nicholasville.

Mr. R. G. Robertson has returned from Dossfield.

Miss Annie Deane leaves soon to visit friends at Cumberland Gap.

Miss Nannie Owen, who has been quite sick, is now convalescent.

Mr. Clark Owen says, "The passing months only make her dearer far."

Miss Carrie Owen has returned from an extended trip through the North.

Mr. C. L. Cornwall, of Louisville, spent Saturday and Sunday at Mr. W. J. Dean's.

Miss Lillie Owen says, "Of all names that I like none so on the ear, its Frank."

Miss Stella Deane has lost her gold specs. She offers a handsome reward to the finder.

Mr. Vir Robertson still hovers lovingly near Glendene. We wonder what the attraction is?

Miss Carrie Moorman has returned to her home in Cloverport, to the regret of her many friends.

Mr. Vennie Moorman plays on the harp no more, as she has no cooperation business take up all his time.

Mr. Dick Owen says, "Though lost to sight, to memory ever dear." Ah, Minnie, don't you ever weep?

Mr. Ernest Robertson has resigned his position with Moorman & Beeler, and left last week for Hawesville, where he will begin reading law.

Mr. Will Moorman, the popular young merchant of Glendene, has lost something, and any information on the subject will be thankfully received.

For sale, a good pair of oxen. Inquire of J. H. Hix, Rockvale.

SECRETARY.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Gregory & Co. in this issue. Their stock of fertilizers, lime, cement, shingles, laths, doors, pine flooring, plow handles, plastering hair, etc., is much larger this spring than ever before, and bottom prices are their motto.

G. A. Jackson, who left here some three weeks ago to visit his sister in Illinois for his health, died last Thursday. His remains were brought here Saturday and interred in the Oglesby graveyard the same evening. Mr. Jackson was in his 44th year, and leaves a wife and two small children.

The Allen hill road is now said to be in a worse condition than any other public road in the county. It is almost impassable. Every year this road gets in a fearful bad condition about the time of the spring rains, and this season it is said to be worse than common. The County Court should make an appropriation for this road.

R. L. Suter has begun remodeling the interior of his store rooms. The old fixtures will be replaced with the latest improved and most modern to be had in the country. Mr. Suter is determined not to be behind in the procession when it comes to store improvements. He said to his manager, Mr. Nolte, "Go ahead and make it the most attractive place in Cloverport," and that's just what Mr. Nolte will do.

Mr. John Hanks, aged 81 years, died on the 27th inst. at the home of his wife, Mrs. Taylor Hanks, of this place. His funeral service was preached by the Rev. Charles Myers, after which his remains were conveyed to Union Star for interment. He was a Tennesseean by birth, but had spent most of his life in Kentucky. He had lived a consistent member of the M. E. church South for forty years. His last days were peaceful and untroubled no pain.

NOTICE OF INCORPORATION!

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, C. W. Moorman, William H. Bowman, J. K. McCracken, James T. Skellman, Asa H. Skellman, and B. V. Voss and William Foor have associated themselves together as a body corporate, under the name of the "Cloverport Paving Brick and Manufacturing Company," with its principal place of transacting business at Cloverport, Breckinridge County, Kentucky. The general nature of the business proposed to be transacted is to mine, dig, quarry, buy and sell shale and clay, to manufacture, buy and sell brick, tile and other products of shale and clay, to loan for sale, gas, salt and other articles, and to transport and sell and to buy, sell, own, lease, acquire, hold and transfer, such property, real and personal, as shall be deemed expedient for the proper conduct and management of its business.

The amount of capital stock authorized is Fifty Thousand Dollars, $50,000 (divided into shares of one hundred dollars each) and may be increased to one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), by a three-fourths vote of the paid up capital stock at a regular or called meeting for that purpose.

Said capital stock shall be paid in at such times and upon such conditions as the board of directors shall determine.

The incorporation herein named shall be the director for one year after the organization of the company, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The time of the commencement of the corporation is the 15th day of March, A. D. 1891, and of the termination thereof is the 15th day of March, A. D. 1901, and the termination of the corporation shall be by three-fourths vote of the paid up capital stock.

The affairs of the corporation shall be conducted by a board of directors, consisting of seven members (who shall elect of their number a president, vice president, treasurer and secretary and manager) and said officers shall be elected upon the organization of the company and annually thereafter.

The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which the corporation is at any time to be subject shall be the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).

The rights and property of the stockholders is to be exempt to the corporate debts.

Witness my hand and the seal of the corporation at Cloverport at 5 o'clock, each.
